DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1, 7, 10, 11, 14-21 and 32, drawn to methods of providing or expressing a protein using the pCWin1 vector, and the vector itself.

Group II, claim(s) 2-6, 8-10, 12-19, 22-31 and 33-35, drawn to methods of providing or expressing a protein using the pCWin2 vector, and the vector itself.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

According to PCT Rule 13.2, unity of invention exists only when there is a shared same or corresponding special technical feature among the claimed inventions. All the groups are directed towards E. Coli expression vectors, but each group has a different special technical feature not shared by the other group. According to the specification, the claimed vectors represent a contribution over the prior art (e.g. the pWori plasmids) via modification of the resistance gene and the multiple cloning sites (MCS). Thus, Group I, directed to the pCWin1 vector has the special technical feature of its unique combination of a resistance gene and MCS, not shared by group II (which has a different MCS). Group II is directed to the pCWin2 vector that has the special technical feature of its unique combination of a resistance gene and MCS, a technical feature not shared by group I, which likewise has a different MCS.

Accordingly, Groups I-II are not so linked by the same or a corresponding technical feature as to form a single inventive concept.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

the species of the pCWin2 vector recited as SEQ ID NOs: 3, 10 and 11 in claim 3, for example.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

claims 24 and 25 recite the species of SEQ ID NO: 3, for example;
claims 27 and 28 recite the species of SEQ ID NO: 10, for example;
claims 29 and 30 recite the species of SEQ ID NO: 11, for example.

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 2, 3, 8, 9, 12, 13, 16, 33, 34.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the species are all mutually exclusive sequence variations of SEQ ID NO: 2, thus each has its own special technical feature which is considered to be an inherent property of the unique sequence of each individual vector.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
